PO Box 1014, Lowell, AR 72745 (405) 256-8494

Bibles for China (BFC) distributes Bibles in poverty stricken areas of inland China to Christians who do not have a Bible and who cannot imagine a single day with a Bible.

- Where would you find guidance for daily life as a Christian without your Bible?
- How would you know if you are honoring God or His promises without a Bible?
- How would you learn about Jesus or teach your children about Jesus without a Bible?
- What would happen to the lives of people in your congregation if no one had access to a Bible?

There are 1.4 billion people in China, nearly one fifth of the world's population and the greatest revival of souls in human history is currently underway. Experts say that there are approximately 80 million Christians in China and estimates are that as many as 20,000 people are embracing the faith every day. Seventy percent of these new believers are in rural areas of China where people live on very meager incomes.

For over 50 years the Chinese government worked to virtually eliminate private ownership of Bibles but in the last decade China has relaxed their policy on individual ownership of Bibles as long as that Bible is printed in China as approved literature. Amity press in Nanjing, China prints full versions of the Bible translated into Mandarin, a dialect read throughout China. In 2013 Bibles for China purchased and distributed over 190,000 Bibles. As of 2016 we have distributed over a half a million bibles around central China.

Our mission is simple: Bibles for China raises funds throughout the world to purchase Bibles in China, where they are shipped to rural areas. We send teams in to verify that the Bibles are actually delivered to Christians attending remote rural churches as they gather to receive them.

The opportunity to do something for those in China is quite simple. We ask you to seek what God would have you do. A one time gift or monthly gift would go a long way toward seeing many converted and receiving God's word.

Thanks for your prayer, love and support.
